ANNUAL THEME

The CONvergence 2009 theme will be COMEDY AND HUMOR in Science Fiction and Fantasy.

This covers everything from the comic relief of Artoo and Threepio to the outright farce of Spaceballs. From the works of Douglas Adams and Robert Asprin to Peter David and Keith Giffen.

Invader Zim! Red Dwarf! Ghostbusters! Addams Family! Buckaroo Banzai! Earth Girls are Easy! Galaxy Quest! Mars Attacks! Men in Black! Time Bandits! Repo Man! Adam West Batman! Young Frankenstein! Real Genius! Freakazoid! Inspector Gadget! Coneheads! I Dream of Jeannie!

From those Disney movies with Kurt Russell to the craziest of Anime, it's all fair game!

We can't wait to see how it all plays out in the panels, parties, and costumes at CONvergence 2009!

schedule.convergence-con.org

Exciting news - a new era in CONvergence scheduling! The CONvergence Programming Schedule will be on line at <http://schedule.convergence-con.org>.

You can search and select by time, location, and panelists, and create your own personalized schedule. We will also be implementing ways to organize the programming schedule, for example: Tagging panels that are especially appropriate for teens or are theme related.

You can find more than just panels – we'll list events from many areas, like MainStage, or Connie's Quantum Sandbox and the hours of operation for the Art Show, Registration, and Dealer's Room.

How could this possibly be more useful? You can download the content to anything that supports iCal (Outlook, Google Calendar, and Apple's iCal) -- and also view it on an iPhone.

Visit <http://schedule.convergence-con.org> now and start planning your convention. Please note, the schedule is NOT final and will continue to be revised until the final weeks and days before the convention. Many of the panels listed may be cut if not enough panelists sign up for them, so support the programming you want to see!

FOUR DAYS

In case you haven't heard, CONvergence is now a FOUR DAY convention, running from Thursday to Sunday. This decision was made in the interest of the sustainability of our ever growing convention. To read more about the reasons behind this change, and how this year's 4-day con will compare to last year's Year Ten extravaganza, check out our 4-Day FAQ:

WHAT'S NEW AT CONVERGENCE IN 2009?

Connie's Quantum Sandbox

Connie's Quantum Sandbox is for the builders, the creators, the makers of things. The Sandbox is for scientific experiments and art projects. You may join us in drawing robots at one moment, and then the next moment we'll be building one.

In past years we've had a Science Room and a Project Room. We've stuck both into a blender to come up with something new and different. Whether you are six or sixty, feel free to get your hands dirty and do it yourself; build it, make it, draw it, craft it!

Live Auction

We're adding a Live Auction component to our Silent Auction! Sunday morning before the Iron Artist event, many of the exciting donations you've seen at our Silent Auction will be offered for sale LIVE! We plan to bring high profile, high value donation pieces to this auction, instead of diverting them to the already crowded Art Show Auction. It's the loudest Silent Auction you've ever seen!

Midwest Sci-Fi Short Film Festival

MISFITS and CONvergence in association with IFP Minnesota and the Minnesota Film and TV Board present the first annual Midwest Sci-Fi Short Film Festival which will be featured as part of CONvergence 2009.

The festival is currently accepting entries. Eligible films will be from any filmmaker living in Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota or Wisconsin, in the category of Science Fiction, Fantasy or Horror genre film and under 16 minutes. There is no entry fee. For more information, please email Festival Director, Troy LaFaye at indiefilmkr@aim.com.

MainStage Friday Night

We have an all-new lineup of Shows and Events planned for CONvergence MainStage on Friday night. We'll have more details on these events as the schedule is finalized and the convention approaches. Keep an eye on the schedule at <http://schedule.convergence-con.org/venue/Main+Stage/> for updates.

- Chuck & Dexter
Joseph Scrimshaw and Tim Uren of Soylent Theater bring you the adventures of Lovecraftian Cultists Chuck and Dexter.
- Ka-Baam!! The Improvised Comic Book
Created by Marvel Comics Editor Steve Wacker and directed by Nels Lennis, Ka-Baam!! features the improvised origins of three original superheroes, and sends them on a team adventure against a dastardly supervillain! To learn more about Ka-Baam!! and its monthly performances at the Bryant Lake Bowl, visit <http://www.hugetheater.com/productions.php>.
- Geeks Got Talent
A talent/variety show in the tradition of The Gong Show. Contestants/performers wanted! See page 4 for more details.
- Vilification Tennis
Vilification Tennis is a structured improvisational show where competitors engage in a battle of insults. The show finds humor in the most taboo subjects and is, therefore, willing to make fun of things that most people would think aren't the least bit funny. Like your mom. Learn more about the show at <http://www.vilificationtennis.com/>

Geeks Got Talent

Do you have a special talent? Calling all performers including singers, jugglers, comedians, magicians, acoustic musicians, one-man bands, and sketch comedy. We're going to follow the style of The Gong Show with judging based on performance, originality and audience reaction. If the audience boos the performers will be "gonged" by the judges. Consequently, audience cheers and jeers are highly encouraged. There will be at least two awards: Best and Worst Performance.

Acts interested in performing, should prepare 3-5 minutes of material and should be able to change over quickly for the next group (i.e. no large sets are allowed). Entrants must also supply a short synopsis of their performance on the entry form. There will be no technical or performance rehearsals for this show; be sure to rehearse on your own. Entrants will be expected to arrive an hour prior to show time with pre-edited music CDs and any other equipment.

MainStage has the right to refuse any acts deemed dangerous, hazardous, inappropriate or in violation of convention rules. The following are NOT allowed: Vulgarity, nudity, obscenity, messy or gooey substances (like silly string), fire, weapons of any kind, and trapeze work.

Applications can be submitted online until June 28 to geeksgottalent@convergence-con.org. After that date you must apply on site by 10:00am Friday. Individuals interested in being a Judge or Master of Ceremonies may also contact us by email at the address above.

Story Slam!

The Dorian Grey Literary Lounge is hosting a Story Slam! Storytellers should come prepared with a 3-5 minute original story with a sci-fi or fantasy theme. Storytellers may either tell their story from memory or read from printed material, but they must use their own work. No reciting other authors' material.

Sign-up will be held at the start of the event by placing your name in the hat and names will be drawn at random from among all those present. We'll call participants up until we run out of time, or storytellers. Look for scheduling details on-line and at the convention.

Writing Workshops

Two writing work shops will be held in the Dorian Gray Literary Lounge at CONvergence this year.

Open Fiction Writing Workshop [2.5 hrs]

The instructor is Jeannie Holmes, author of supernatural suspense and urban fantasy and holding B.A. and Masters of Art degrees in English, with an emphasis in creative writing. <http://www.jeannieholmes.com/>

Open Poetry Writing Workshop [1.5 hours]

The instructor is Sandra Lindow, an award-winning poet, editor and teacher currently teaching part-time at the University of Wisconsin, Stout as well as doing some free-lance writing and editing. <http://www.wfop.org/poets/lindowa.html>

For more information on the workshops, the instructors, or how to sign up, email literarylounge@convergence-con.org or visit <http://www.convergence-con.org/news/20090411.php>.

MORE THINGS TO SIGN UP FOR!

Programming Sign-up

A fourth day in our schedule means lots of extra panels to choose from. Our schedule is nearly complete and we are not accepting additional panel ideas for this year. However, you still have until May 1 to sign up for any existing panels that interest you. We're especially looking for panelists in the Comics, Art, Gaming and Science & Technology tracks. Please go to www.convergence-con.org and click on "Programming" from the Activities Menu for details. It's also not too late to volunteer at the convention by staffing the Programming Green Room. Email programming@convergence-con.org if interested.

We've listened to feedback and have added additional time for a dinner break between 5:00pm–7:00pm, which should give you enough time to go out and get a substantial meal between panels.

This year, we're working on identifying moderators for certain panels. On Thursday afternoon we will have a Panel 101 for new panelists (or for those wanting a refresher) to review the basics of how to give good panel. We also are trying a "Geek Swap Meet" this year. Be sure to bring any DVDs, toys, or memorabilia that you'd be interested in trading with others on Saturday afternoon.

Masquerade

There are only 30 performance slots available, and demand is sure to run high this year, so to ensure your space in the show, register now!

If you have not participated in a few years or are looking to enter for the first time, you have a couple of options:

- 1) Send us your mailing address at info@convergence-con.org and we'll send you a packet.
- 2) Go to the Masquerade Section on the web site (<http://www.convergence-con.org/attractions/masquerade/masquerade.php>). You will find a printable registration form, rules for the competition and updated judging and award criteria!

We could always use more backstage help and costumer assistants, so if you'd like to get involved in that way, please contact us at the e-mail address above.

Connie's Space Lounge: Circus in the Stars

Haven't you always wanted to run away to the circus? In space?

Space Lounge Cabaret is looking for performers. You don't have to be experienced; enthusiasm and creativity are where it counts in this Space Circus! If you have skillz in magic, gymnastics, singing, puppetry, or reciting Klingon poetry, we are especially interested in YOU! We are also looking for non-performers who would like to MC, run a soundboard, or costume. Interested? email rzzachel@gmail.com.

At this time we are not looking for belly-dancing, drumming, or folk-singing. We respect your talents, but the Space Lounge Cabaret aims to create a theme, and showcase acts that do not already have a venue for expression elsewhere in the convention.

AND DON'T FORGET:

Parties

We have a full slate of parties at poolside ready to once again rock the house. Most parties will be the usual 2 night (Friday and Saturday) parties with many adding Thursday to run for three full evenings. We welcome anyone who wants to try throwing a room party to try Thursday night only. Please contact parties@convergence-con.org for further info.

American Sign Language Interpreters

We are pleased to announce that the ASL Interpreters will be returning this year. We ask all attendees to respect reserved seating for Interpreters, and to get word out that our services are available.

If you will need assistance at the convention, please contact info@convergence-con.org and let us know in advance what events or panels you will be attending.

If you know you want to attend the Art Auction, please let us know ASAP as that requires a specific skill set for our interpreting staff. For on-site assistance, contact the Operations Bridge in Verandas 6 and 8 or at extension 7215.

While we are not providing specific reservations or rates to these hotels, we have contacted them to advise that they may receive calls from CONvergence attendees.

Lastly we want to thank everyone for their patience and understanding. Response to CONvergence has been huge again this year and we are suffering growing pains. Even more so than in previous years we are looking at ways to improve our processes and make them better for everyone. As always, please direct any questions on hotel rooms to hotel@convergence-con.org.
